My Spanish host family

In Alcantarilla I stayed with Miguel and his family. He has one sister. Her name is Marina. She is older than he and she is studying at the university of Cartagena and she wants to be a teacher after finishing her studies. Both his parents are teachers, too. Only 2 people can speak English in his family, it is him and his sister. His mom tried to speak English but it was not as good as Miguel's English.

They live in a big flat that surprised me because the flat from outside looked old and messy. However, the inside was clean and cosy and very big. The flat even has its own garage. Sadly, I do not have a family photo that I can show there.

Saturday 7th February with my host family family

The Saturday at the end of the week we spent with the family. The day started as other days before, but this day we did not have school. We had a breakfast at around 10 am, because I slept long.

After that my host Miguel had a futsal match so we went to watch and cheer him. They unfortunately lost.

Then it was lunch time and we have been to a restaurant to have a pizza. However, it was not a typical pizza as you can think about, but it was like a bread with toppings of typical pizza. You can see it in the picture.

After lunch we had a break that we spent playing Fifa.

At around 6:00 p.m. we started our trip with Miguel and his friends to Murcia by bus, where we were walking around and buying souvenirs.

After we finished the trip we went to a bus stop.

One thing I hate about Spain is their buses because it takes so long to get on the bus and it is always full. I do not want to imagine the smell of the bus in the summer days.
