SUNDAY 22nd MARCH WITH MY SPANISH FAMILY

The Sunday with my family was great. They started teaching me some basic words of their own language, Valenciano.

In the morning we went to a giant castle in the town called Xativa. The castle was also called Xativa. When we were there we saw a big cannon where the Spanish forces were shooting cannon balls. That was a very fun activity.

To be honest I was very scared, because there were really dangerous and sharp things that the Spanish forces used to slowly kill people.

After the trip to the castle we went to a big shopping centre where we had a big burger that tasted really good.

And we also went to an arcade where bowling was. I scored 3 strikes and it was very fun. After the bowling we also went to an medium sized fun park where a lot of slides and other very fun activities were.

When we returned to the home me and my host went to the living room to play Nintendo Switch Sports. My favourite game on Nintendo Switch Sports was Tennis, I was very good at it.

The time when it was evening we went to a hangout to the middle of Enguera called, “The square“

When we came, there was a mini carnival where trampolines and a caravan where you could either buy prizes or win prizes, by throwing arrows at balls where a prize could fall.

I bought 2 throws and I missed the first one, but I popped the second ball in.

We left home at 10 p.m. The day was a great fun.
