My host family in Palma de Mallorca

I spent a week in Mallorca with a Spanish family. This family lives in a small, cosy flat near the main city of Palma, with a beautiful view on a sea. They are located near the Bono bus stop which is one of the main bust stops to Palma.

They are three members of this family: mum, dad. and my Spanish roommate Irene

The daily life of this family is simple. Mum and dad. work as IT technicians in their own flat. Their work starts in the morning around 9:00 am and ends at 5:30 p.m. in the afternoon; which gives them time to relax and do family activities

In this household mum always cook for us or sometimes dad helps her with some easy snacks or a meal to school.

After lunch, which usually ends after 2:00 pm, the family likes to take a nap except my roommate. This is an important part of the day for them.

At 7 pm the mum prepares for us a dinner. After dinner she likes to ask me some things or harmless questions.

My roommate has a paddle every Tuesday. Paddle is a sport that is something like a tennis. This lesson takes 1 hour, she's good at it.

She also plays three types of guitars: normal guitar, electric guitar and ukulele. On Thursdays she has a guitar lesson, which starts at 6.20 pm.

Normally this family has strict rules. My roommate always needs to have a cleaned room, help with chores or just to be good at school. Most of days they go to bed at 9pm.
