My Spanish host family

My family in Spain was really good. They were really funny and friendly. They didn't have any pets. They were a family of four people: Rodrigo, his older sister Luna, and his mother and father. We lived in a flat in Alcantarilla. We went to school by car every day; it was like five minutes depending on traffic.

Rodrigo plays football for their local football team in Murcia. He is a goalkeeper, and his older sister Luna plays the guitar. They really like tennis. Their favourite player is Carlos Alcaraz because he lived in Alcantarilla. When I was there, he won the Grand Slam Open Cup in Australia.

We went to their grandfather and grandmother a lot, they were friendly and funny as well they had a big house and cats and dogs. We usually went to sleep at 11:00 p.m. and we got up at 7:00 a.m.

Rodrigo's mother cooked very well, the food was really delicious. She works in Alcantarilla as a guard. They use olive oil a lot on their meals. Father cooked with mother. He works at the town hall.

Saturday 7th February with my host family

On Saturday I woke up at 8:00 and took shower and brushed my teeth. For breakfast we had some delicious egg omelettes and a cup of tea. After breakfast we played some board games, it was really fun.

After the games we went to the car, because we were going on a trip with Kuba und Mauricio. In the car we listened to loud Spanish rap music. It was fun. The journey was like 1 and half hour.

Then we walked for about 15 minutes from the car to the sea. It was really windy by the sea but the sun was shining so everything was good. I think it was over 20 degrees. We walked like 50 minutes back to car. And went to shopping the centre for lunch and some little shopping. I had a burger, it was good but not the best. Then we did some shopping and I did not buy anything. The shopping centre was big.

We went back home. The journey back was about 1 hour. At home I was really tired so I went to bed and after I woke up, I packed my things up and brushed my teeth and went to bed again.
