MY SPANISH HOST FAMILY

My Spanish host family consisted of four members. My Spanish friend is called Leonora. She is 11 years old. She was born in Spain but is Bulgarian. She has a 16-year-old brother. She likes going to the swimming pool, spending time with friends and listening to music.

Her mother came to Spain when she was 15. Her grandparents also lived and worked there. She finished high school and started working. Many Bulgarian families also came. They all went to high school. Some stayed, some left. After a few years, her mother and her Bulgarian friends founded a club. Every holiday is celebrated there together with the Spaniards. They love all the festivals, Spanish and Bulgarian.

They have their own flat, which is located in a house where four families live on each floor. They made the apartment a little bigger, they made half of the terrace bigger and they added a kitchen. When you enter the apartment, there is a handle in the lower half of the door in the middle like all the doors there. From the bedroom you enter the bathroom of her brother's room and the living room from which you go to the kitchen and then to the terrace. From the living room you also enter another hallway and from the hallway you go to my Spanish friend's room, where I also slept, and also to her parents' bedroom.

They also have some fields in Enguera. They have olive trees and peach trees. They make olive oil from the olives. It is very good. They have chickens, rabbits and a vegetable garden. They grow potatoes, tomatoes, cucumbers and many other vegetables.

Leonora's father is a physical education teacher, but he came to Spain when he was 25 and works as a truck driver. His name is Slavi, her mother is Silvia and her brother is Dario. Her maternal grandparents, aunts and uncles live in the village of Totis near Enguera. Her paternal grandparents live in Bulgaria.

They go there every summer for the whole month because they have friends there and their town is twenty minutes from Greece. They often go to the beach and to the sea. Leonora's parents want to return to Bulgaria one day.
