Festivals in Mallorca

Three Kings (Los Reyes Magos)

On 6th January, children get presents from the Three Kings. There are parades in the streets. It's an important day, especially for kids.

Carnival (Sa Rua and Sa Rueta)

Carnival in Mallorca is a fun party before Lent. The two main events are Sa Rua and Sa Rueta. Sa Rua is for adults and Sa Rueta is for kids. Both events are full of color, joy and celebration. They celebrate this in February.

Easter (Pascua)

In March or April, there is celebration of Easter. Easter is religious holiday. There are quiet processions in towns. People remember the death and resurrection of Jesus.

St. John's Eve (Noche de San Juan)

People celebrate the beginning of summer. There are fires on the beach, music, and jumping over flames. It is a magical night.

Christmas (La Navidad)

People celebrate the birth of Jesus on 25th December. Families eat dinner together. Children get presents on January 6th.
