My host family in Palma de Mallorca

Hello, my name is Markéta, and I would like to introduce you to the host family I stayed with in Mallorca.

The family live in apartment with three rooms, kitchen, living room and bathroom.

The family has four members: the father, the mother, and their two daughters. The father, Carlos, is a really funny and happy man who works as an engineer. He has a great sense of humor. He loves watching football matches, and his favourite team is Barcelona. He is originally from Ecuador but moved to Mallorca for work. Even though he doesn't speak English, he spoke a little Spanish with me and told me about his family in Ecuador.

The mother, Soledad, is kind, energetic, and very caring. She works as a housekeeper, and she cooked delicious meals for the family. She also introduced me to many traditional Spanish and Mallorcan dishes. She wasn't as talkative as her husband, but she was still very nice and warm-hearted.

The family has two daughters. The younger one is named Brigette and she is 14 years old. She is quiet and thoughtful girl, more of an introvert, but very kind and friendly once you get to know her. She enjoys reading books, listening to Spanish music, and spending time with her family watching movies. Even though she was a bit shy at first, we slowly became friends. She helped me with my Spanish, and I taught her a little Czech.

The older daughter is 27 years old. She doesn't live at home because she studies and works in another city in Mallorca. I had a chance to meet her and we went out for dinner together. She speaks English very well, so it was easy to talk with her. The family is obviously very proud of her, and even though she lives far away, she stays in close contact with them. I liked that even though there is a bigger age difference between the two sisters, they enjoy spending time together.
