Portuguese family I stayed with

My Portuguese family lived in a three-storey house with a garage and a terrace. They had a games room, bar and laundry room on the 1st floor. They had a kitchen, dining room and living room on the 2nd floor. They had bedrooms on the last third floor. Logically, we usually eat a lot of Madeiran food and the rest generally from around the world.

They don't have any pets. My host Henrique was very nice, caring and funny. His family consists of his mother Selma, father Victor and younger sister Inés.

Saturday 15th 2025

On Saturday afternoon, after lunch, they took me to a scout graduation, which included my Portuguese Henrique. Not only did I experience how the scout graduation ceremony in Portugal takes place, but I also visited a beautiful church and listened to Portuguese.

After a two-hour graduation, they took me to a banquet where the whole scouts were and I had a lot of food and drink there. Henrique's mom told me that we are going home after that.

But when we came out of the house where the banquet was, suddenly a race car drove by and Henrique wanted to follow him right away, because he is a big lover of racing cars. When we reached the square, where the car stopped, others immediately arrived, including Škoda. Henrique immediately started taking pictures of them. After the photo shoot, we went home.

Sunday 16th 2025

Early on Sunday morning, I was woken up by a strong wind hitting the wall. They cooked me scrambled eggs with toast for breakfast. After breakfast we went to Henrico, who is a Filip Martinek's Portuguese host. I had a nice chat in Czech with Filip and it was very funny. Then we left Henrico and Filip, picked up Henrique's dad from work and went to Henrique's grandmother for a family lunch, where I got to know a large part of his family. We had rice with meat mixture for lunch. Henrique's grandmother gave us an excellent dessert.

Then we went home. I packed my swimsuit, slippers and towel at home and we went to the seaside. The sea was very cold and there were no crabs in the sand. We had a snack - a pancake with garlic butter. After a delicious snack, we went home. We had dinner and we rested after a hard day.
