On Wednesday afternoon we went by bus to the seaside. Before we went to the ocean we were at Gulliver park at Valencia. It's very big park. There were many slides and very big slides. There were a lot of groups of children. We had time to eat our packed lunch and then we tried the slides and other attractions in the park, like climbing the figure of Gulliver, his hat and hand and so on. We spent there about 2 hours.

We went to the sea because it is very sunny and hot today. Water was salt. At the beach were many people and they are lying on the beach.

People were sunbathing there. It was very hot and some friends went to the ocean to swim. We were at the ocean for an hour and after the ocean we waited for the bus. When the bus arrived, we got on it and drove to school. Our Spanish families were waiting at school. It was funny and good because on the bus, because I was with Monica and I talking with her.

The trip was very nice, I was so happy to see the ocean, the beach was beautiful, and the sand was hot. Spanish sun is Journey to Enguera was very long. It's one hour from Valencia sea-side to Enguera school. On the bus someone was sleeping and someone talking with friends.

Monica and Ondra played games who has higher IQ. I didn't play because I don't like this game. When the bus arrived at the meeting point where it was supposed to be our Spanish parents, they were waiting for us to take us home.

We all went home together and talked to each other about the trip. Then we all go to one of our Spanish friends and told them everything about the trip. At home we called each other and played and talked with the Spanish friends. And then we had dinner with Martina and later we went to bed to go sleep because the next day was school. Martina played on her phone for a while. I went to sleep.

Wednesday afternoon was very nice and I enjoyed it very much.
