My host family in Palma de Mallorca

The family of my host Eric lives in an apartment in a block of flats not far from the city centre. He lives in this apartment only with his mom Joana since his parents are divorced. His dad Miguel lives somewhere outside of the city where I haven't been.

The apartment includes a kitchen, a living room, two bathrooms, a bedroom, a balcony, and my host's room. He has a cat whose name they didn't tell me. They usually eat a lot of Mallorcan food logically, and the rest is generally from around the world. My host Eric was nice, funny, and caring.

On Wednesday afternoon, after I came home with my roommate Erik, we went to his grandmother's for lunch where we had potatoes with meatballs which I really enjoyed. Afterwards, we went home where we rested for a long time.

After a long rest, we went to the town and the park with his friend. He showed me the park and we bought something to drink at a convenience store. When we got home after our walk, we had a huge feast for dinner full of all sorts of things. Afterwards, we had dessert and brushed our teeth. We watched TV for a while and then went to bed.
