PROJEKT: Active EU Citizen: I love myself

Saturday 7th February with my host family family

On Saturday we went to the city of Murcia again. We took the bus, and it was quite a long journey to the centre. We were sitting together, talking and looking out of the window. Even the bus ride felt special because I knew my time there was slowly coming to an end.

When we arrived in the city centre of Murcia, we decided to enjoy the afternoon as much as possible. First, we tasted the best frozen yogurt I have ever had. It was creamy, fresh, and not too sweet. I remember thinking that I would really miss this taste when I go back home to Czech Republic. It was one of those small make you happy.

After that, we went to look at necklaces in some small shops. There were many beautiful pieces of jewellery. In the end, I bought two gold necklaces as a memory of my stay. They were simple but elegant, and for me they are not just jewellery, they are a reminder of my Erasmus experience, the people I met, and the time I spent in Spain.

Later, it was time to say goodbye. It was not easy because we had shared so many experiences together. We hugged each other and promised to stay in contact. After saying goodbye, I went home with Carmen. We were both a little tired, because it was a really long day. We were walking in the city for hours but I really enjoyed it.

That night we went to bed a bit earlier than usual because I had a long journey ahead of me the next morning. I needed to travel all the way back to the Czech Republic. While lying in bed, I was thinking about everything that had happened. I felt grateful, happy, and also a little sad. I knew I would miss Murcia, the people, the food, and the atmosphere. But I also knew that I would always carry these memories with me.
