SUNDAY 22nd MARCH WITH MY SPANISH FAMILY

We got up at 8:00 and had breakfast, for breakfast there was toasted bread smeared with olive oil with scrambled eggs.

At 9:00 we left to Valencia, our friends joined us on the way (Kost'a with his Spanish family)

At 10:00 we arrived at the Oceanography of Valencia, after buying tickets we took the elevator down to a large tank with sea water.

There we could see everything from jellyfish to the sea lions. The next part was in a garden with artificial crabs. We continued under the tank with the sea lion and into the another building where there were penguins.

It was starting to get warm up on the surface, so we took off our sweatshirts and saw crocodiles. Right next door, the dolphin show in the aquarium started, during the show they announced KAHOOT and a Spanish classmate won and got a cap and helped the operator with various things during the show.

Next came the shark and ray section, among the sharks there were also a few sawfish. That's where we spent the most time and had the most fun.

Next were the coastal fish and birds, then we went through the lower tunnel past smaller and smaller jellyfish to the model of the sunk of the ship, where there were lots of corals.

We started to be hungry so we left the Oceanography and went to eat, we started with plates of shrimp in a breaded crust, fried fish, etc.

Then they brought us a huge pan with rice shrimp and lots of fish, for dessert I had cheesecake.

After lunch, we went to the local lake with a local Spaniard for a boat ride. On the way, we came across eel nets. The boat trip took about 30 minutes and we are returning.

Finally, we returned to Adrian's house for a free programme (PlayStation, chatting...).

For dinner we had traditional Spanish churros with sweet milk.

At 10:00 PM we went to bed.
